These textbooks are almost identical to regular student editions except that they also include extra notes and/or answers to problems. Teachers' edition textbooks are extremely useful for university and college students, people on correspondence distance-learning courses, parents who are homeschooling children, and motivated students looking to sharpen up their knowledge through additional case problems.

Pearson often releases "updated" editions of textbooks on a yearly basis. The books are so exorbitantly priced that book dealers need little convincing to stop repurchasing previous editions of books from students. Local bookstores don't carry the old editions, so teachers can't require them for classes.
